

NATHEN ASWELL (www.NathenAswell.com)

“Before Nathen opens his mouth to sing, before those talented fingers touch his instrument, you know you are in the presence of a man who makes beautiful music and offers it generously as a gift to God and anyone lucky enough to be within earshot. Don’t EVER miss an opportunity to listen to this man share his gift!”

Rev. Terry Shea, Centre for Spiritual Living White Rock, BC

Nathen Aswell is a gifted keynote speaker, recording artist and musician based in Vancouver, BC, Canada, and he believes that his calling in this life is to inspire and heal through his talks and his heart-centered music-making. His CDs “Little By Little” and “YES” are celebrations of life, transformation, evolution and the oneness of humanity, delivered in a variety of popular music styles.

“... an exceptionally produced collection of songs that support a conscious life...”

Rosemarie Ashley, Positive Music Association

“... The songs are all catchy and upbeat, without being preachy. And, the songs all give us a glimpse into the wonderful energy and presence of Nathen.”

Sue K Riley, emPower Music and Arts

“... these songs do a mind, body, and spirit good.”

Jennifer Washington, Acoustic Fuel Co-Op

Nathen honours his calling by speaking and performing at Conferences, Concerts, Men’s Retreats and Churches both nationally and internationally, presenting his music, stories and humour with his voice and the NS Stick (an 8-stringed electronic instrument that can be plucked like a bass, strummed like a guitar, or tapped with both hands like a piano). He also hosts “Small Steps Big Life”, a podcast which showcases people sharing stories about their unique AND universal journeys.
